Suggestion No.1

Peace be with you

Miracles do happen. Reverend Priests. Seminarians and my dear friends:

For years I am painfully translating - and have them reviewed - the books written by the saintly Priest Don Dolindo Ruotolo. He received the grace by the HOLY SPIRIT to explain better the Bible and other holy topics.

I realize that your time is precious. The topics I translate may not seem to you enough interesting, all “old stuff” especially for a Priest. “I am busy, I already know, I already have other books about it, I’ll read it later” and so on. Whatever may be the case, my dear Reverend Priests and friends, here you have this special link. I call it a link with the HOLY SPIRIT. I offer it to you. I translate it for free, it is reviewed for free, it is put on the internet for free. It is for you to do what you want and can. However please know that with these holy books you are dealing with the HOLY SPIRIT, may He be blessed forever and ever; they do not only comment but meditate and psychologically approach the Sacred Text of the Gospel. May Father Dolindo, who wrote the books – please check his amazing biography in the internet -, be soon rise to the honor of the Altar, as the Saint he was on earth, and from Heaven may he look lovingly upon all of us.

Because we translate them and review them, we savor each word of these precious books. I invite you Reverend Priests, Seminarians and dear friends to read very slowly each passage, even each word. You do not need to hurry, nobody is behind you to read it. Only the HOLY SPIRIT and He wants to reach your soul. Please remember that your eyes read much quicker than your inner mind, thus you may skip a lot of what the HOLY SPIRIT wants you to know.

Peace be with you

Please pass on this precious link to others, especially to Seminarians or New Priests. The reason being is that it will greatly help them in their priestly formation. In Naples, Italy, lay people, seminarians, Priests, are going in droves to get the books of Don Dolindo Ruotolo, especially Seminarians and learned Priests in charge of their spiritual formation. These are Holy Books, highly inspired by the HOLY SPIRIT. They do not only comment but meditate and psychologically approach the Sacred Text of the Gospel. It will be for you, in some of its parts, as to take a college course on Psychology or a Yoga – but Roman Catholic Meditation! – training. Think of the little nothing that we are, smaller than a spade of grass in the whole universe and yet the Holy Spirit is interested in me and in you to know! How great! He is great!

Please when you choose one of the subjects to read, print out at least one of them. You shall do a favor to yourself. It will be the part of a book that you cannot yet find in English in any library in the whole world and it is yours, a reminder, when you look at those few printed pages that you printed them to say: Thank You HOLY SPIRIT! Thank you Don Dolindo!

Ave Maria
